Thomas Estate Causes Litigation

Suit has been filed by Mrs. Mary Thomas Ireland and her children, James T. Clay and Miss Laura Clay, of Lexington, formerly of Paris, against Robert L. Thomas and the widow and heirs of William R. Thomas, of Lexington. The suit has grown out of one branch of the estate of the late Captain James M. Thomas, of this city, who amassed a fortune in mountain lands and lumber, and died a resident of Ford, Clark county, several years ago. The plaintiff, Mrs. Mary Thomas Ireland, is a daughter of Captain James M. Thomas.

The plaintiffs claim that Robert L. Thomas and William R. Thomas, who were two of the executors and trustees under the will of James M. Thomas, and who purchased from the estate about twenty thousand acres of land in Jackson and Rockcastle counties for $190,000, should account to the plaintiffs for their one-fourth part of the advance price which the plaintiffs claim the said Robert L. Thomas and William R. Thomas received from a re-sale of said land in Jackson and Rockcastle counties. Mrs. Ireland and her children claim that the defendants re-sold said land for as much as $500,000. The litigation is based upon the contention of the plaintiffs that the trustees could not make any profit out of the estate by buying and reselling it.

The suit is in Winchester and will be tried in the Clark Circuit Court.

The plaintiffs are represented by Robert B. Franklin, of Frankfort, and Robert C. Talbott, of Paris.

Dies From Fright.

Wallace Larry, a colored boy aged fifteen years, fell from a mule on the farm of Mr. H. V. Thompson in Clark county and died from fright a few minutes later. The boy, whose home was at Clintonville, this county, was riding one mule and leading another when he accidentally fell between the two animals. Death is believed to have been the result of heart trouble. Following the accident he was placed in a wagon, but died in a few minutes after getting in. "That scared me to death," the body was buried at Clintonville.

Read This Testimonial.

Read what this farmer has to say about our hog remedy:

"This is to certify that I have used Laughlin's Hog Remedy for ten years and heartily recommend it as being the best for cholera, and as a preventative and tonic advise all farmers to use it."

C. W. B. M. Meeting.

The C. W. B. M. held a very interesting meeting Friday afternoon in the parlors of the Christian church with Mrs. Walter Payne, Vice President, presiding in the absence of the President, Mrs. Lucy Simms. After the business session a literary program was rendered. The program consisted of a set of questions prepared by the chairman of the board and answered by the members. Miss Maria Tipton gave a very interesting talk on New Zealand. A tribute to the memory of Mrs. Julia Frank, one of the members of the auxiliary, was read and the secretary was requested to write a letter of sympathy to Mrs. Sarah K. Yancey, the State Secretary, whose son, Mr. Worth Yancey, died recently in Lexington.

Every Day a Feature.

Every day of the Bourbon Fair, September 3-7, will have its special features. Every day will be a big day. A grand collection of the most famous blooded stock in Kentucky to contest for the liberal premiums. Attractions both day and night.

Rugs, Carpets and Matting.

Low prices on rugs, wall paper, matting and carpets all this week at J. T. HINTON'S.

Colored Institute Closes.

The Colored Teachers' Institute which has been in session here during the week came to a close Friday. This was one of the best institutes, both in point of attendance, interest and profit ever conducted in Paris. All of the teachers in attendance were alert, enthusiastic and fully alive to the importance of agricultural and manual training and domestic science. These departments were emphasized throughout the meeting a number of the teachers having taken special courses along these lines at the University of Chicago and at other institutions.

Bicycle Supplies.

Full line of bicycle supplies for all makes of wheels. Let us fill your order.

Killed in Missouri.

News has been received here of the death of James Quisenberry Squires, aged eighteen, son of William H. Squires, formerly of Bourbon county, which was the result of his being struck by a train at Cameron, Mo., where his father resides. He was returning home from church and how the accident occurred is not explained. The body was in no way mutilated. He was the grandson of the late Wm. T. Squires, formerly a member of the Bourbon Fiscal Court, who reside at Little Rock, this county, and has many relatives here. The family both in Kentucky and Missouri are prostrated with grief over his tragic end. His father, Wm. H. Squires, formerly resided near Little Rock, this county, and moved to Missouri several years ago.

When Wrinkles Come.

The first wrinkle of age comes on the side of the cheek just in front of the ear and its possessor is, as a rule, the last person to notice it. Just behind the ear there is usually a falling off of the roundness of the neck, and the hair becomes thin, leaving a bald look on the woman over 40 if she is not careful to remedy these important blemishes. Massage will do more for these growing imperfections than almost any other facial defect.

For Today.

Those who live on the mountains have a longer day than those who live in the valleys. Sometimes all we need to brighten our day is to rise a little higher.

Health and Cheer.

There is longevity in the sunny soul that eases our jolts and makes our sides shake with laughter. There is a wonderful medicinal effect in good cheer. Good news and glad tidings have a magic effect even upon invalids. We often see a whole store or factory or home transformed by one sunny soul. On the other hand, we have seen them blighted and made dark by a gloomy, morose, fault-finding person.

The Reason Why.

"Madam, I am just out of the hospital, and—" "Don't tell me any such story as that! You are the same man I gave a piece of pie to not two weeks ago." "Yes'm, dat was just 'fore I went to de hospital!"—Houston Post.

Blessings of Good Temper.

No trait of character is more valuable than the possession of a good temper. Home can never be made happy without it. It is like flowers springing up in our pathway, reviving and cheering us.
